

Kenzell Huggins Summer 2015 Fieldwork

I did archival research in the Clifford Geertz Papers at the University of Chicago through a UROP Grant. Geertz was an influential cultural anthropologist who did research in Indonesia and Morocco and was key to the development of interpretive anthropology. I was able to handle some of his original research documents as well as correspondence between him and other scholars. I also found some of his unpublished papers and talks.